

10 questions to Gert Zweedijk

1. What is your position at Royal Dirkzwager?

I am an information analyst. It is my job to make sure that the wishes and needs of our customers and Dirkzwager are met in a product or application.

In order to reach the best result, part of my work is to analyze the business (processes) as well.

2. How long do you work here and how did you get this job?

Since August this year. Thanks to Google I found this position. I started applying and got hired.

3. What did you want to be when you were young?

I wanted to be an airline pilot. Unfortunately, my eyes weren't good enough at that time.

4. What do you prefer to do in your spare time?

Spend time with my 2 children, cross in my Landrover, travel, running, diving and photography.

5. What is your ultimate dream?

That my children grow up healthy and reach a good position in society. And that they will be happy of course.

6. What is never lacking in your fridge?

(Biological) Vegetables, Breakfast and "Leffe Bruin" (dark beer).

7. If you had enough money to retire what would you do?

I would travel and combine it with voluntary work like i.e. giving classes in third world countries or working on preserving nature parks.

8. What are you proud of?

I am proud of my children and my wife. And that I managed to do my masters next to my fulltime job.

9. What is your life motto?

"Life is what you make it". But I realize this is only possible when you're healthy and live in a rich country like The Netherlands.

10. With whom would you like to have a good conversation?

The Dalai Lama (about life in general), Barack Obama (about politics), Reinhold Messner (about climbing all fourteen 8000-meter peaks without supplementary oxygen) and Sergei Bubka (about reaching incredible heights using a pole).
